Iowa State University

Summer Choral Academy

(All-State Clinic for High School Students)

August 1-2, 2012

on the Iowa State University campus

The Summer Choral Academy will be open to all high school students interested in preparing the Iowa All-State Choir repertoire. Dr. James Rodde will lead a team of qualified clinicians who will guide the participants in learning pitch, rhythm, and text in each piece. They will also offer guidance in expressive interpretations and tools for improving intonation, all through a healthful approach to singing.

As a choir, the participants will record each piece at the conclusion of the two-day event, with the final recordings available online. A track of each piece with voice part highlighted, and the final recording session will be made available to each participant and Director.

Singers must purchase and bring their own All-State music packet with them. Packets may be purchased, beginning July 25, through Kephart's Music Center, 126 East Water St. P.O. Box 139, Decorah, IA 52101. Orders can be placed starting May 1st (email: natalie@kepharts.com) (Phone: 800-369-9633).

Twenty-minute voice lessons will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Space will be limited.

Housing is NOT available, meals are on your own.

Registration Fee $60.00
includes all sessions, continental breakfast August 2, and CD recording of the All-State pieces with a midi track for each voice part

Voice Lesson (20 minutes) $25.00
optional

A tentative Schedule of Events is shown on the reverse side.

If interested, please complete and return the enclosed form by Friday, June 15.
Thank you for your consideration and support of this event!

Mission
This year's Academy will be open to all high school students interested in preparing the Iowa All-State Choir repertoire. A team of qualified clinicians, under the leadership of Dr. James Rodde, will guide the participants in learning pitch, rhythm, and text in each piece, will offer guidance in expressive interpretations and tools for improving intonation. A healthful approach to singing will also be a primary consideration. As a choir, the participants will record each piece at the conclusion of the two-day event, with the recordings becoming available online. The website will also contain midi-tracks of each piece that highlight individual voice parts.

Optional: Mini-voice lessons.
