Auditions for ISU Theatre’s
_Iowa Insect Pageant_
Directed by Amanda Petefish-Schrag
Composed by Mike Giles

_Iowa Insect Pageant_ description:
Bees and butterflies and beetles, oh my!
_Flying, swimming, crawling, and climbing, insects are all around us. In this unique interdisciplinary, multiform, insect extravaganza, our smallest Iowa neighbors will be made large through puppetry, music, and movement._

Audition Details:
March 7, 6:30 – 8:30 in Carver 308

Sign Up online or scan the QR code.

Callbacks will be on March 8.
If unable to attend the audition on March 7, please contact Amanda Petefish-Schrag (apschrag@iastate.edu)

Audition Format: Auditions will consist of group storytelling and movement work – no advance preparation required. Those auditioning for the pageant host roles will also be asked to do some cold readings and improv.
Please dress in clothing that allows you to move comfortably and arrive to your audition time at least ten minutes in advance to fill out your audition form.

Production Details:
Rehearsals begin March 21, and will generally occur M-F in the late afternoon or evening. Puppeteers/Actors will typically rehearse 4-6 hours per week, with the exception of tech week, which will occur the week before performances and will require additional rehearsal time.
Performances are April 28-May 1.

Credit Availability:
1-3 Credits of Theatre 301x available.

Roles Available:
1-2 Pageant “Hosts” (non-puppeteer)
7-12 Puppeteers to perform using large scale puppet insects including –
   Aphids
   Moths
   Dragonflies
   Mosquitos
   Monarch Butterfly
   Caterpillars
   Beetles
   Bees

Questions:
Please contact apschrag@iastate.edu