ITEMS TO BE GRADED

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION: Obviously, I want you here in class! That said, this past two and a half years have shown us that life can get hectic really quickly. Students will be responsible for attending 33 class sessions once we begin taking attendance via Top Hat will start in earnest on Monday, Jan. 30 (the start of Week 3). Which means, each student can avail themselves of three unexcused absences throughout the semester for any reason. Students will be expected to review material and/or catch up on class notes, but will not be penalized for attendance/participation points.

Additionally, a student can be excused for missing a class for any of the following—with proper documentation. NOTE: Any university-approved absence must be communicated to the instructor by your supervising faculty at least one week prior to the absence.

- Field trips or curricular-related activities
- Extra-curricular activities as a representative of the university, such as:
 - Academic or professional conferences, workshops, presentations, or programs
 - Intercollegiate athletic, academic, and judging competitions
 - Musical, theatrical, dance, or other artistic performances
- Military or National Guard service
- Court appearances
- Funerals
- Positive COVID-19 test or necessary isolation from exposure
 - The period of excusal from class will extend to the full length of the isolation period under current CDC guidance.

Any student who has an excused absence must provide the proper documentation to me prior to the date of the absence to excuse your absence. You must also make arrangements with me to make up any missed assignments within a reasonable amount of time.

Students experiencing family crisis or prolonged medical absences may be offered an additional assignment to help make up a deficit of participation points on a case-by-case basis and at the discretion of the professor.

READING QUIZZES AND DISCUSSION BOARDS: The end of each week during the semester will feature either a reading quiz (drawn from specific pages in the textbook) or discussion board, which will feature performances or relevant articles for student response. Students will be expected to complete/contribute to these as prompted in specific modules on Canvas throughout the semester.

MODULE EXAMS: At the end of each module, students will complete an exam on Canvas on information covered in textbook readings and in class (lectures, additional articles, PowerPoints, guest lectures, field trip information, film clips, and/or performances viewed). Each exam will be open for a window of three days (see schedule above) and may be taken twice within that window.

REACTION PAPERS: You are asked to attend two performances during the semester and write a reaction paper of at least 1000 words giving your view on the event, the platform, the performers, and the audience with your opinion supported by specific class concepts. A list of question prompts to consider are on page 21 of the textbook and additional questions will be included in the assignment on Canvas. Students are expected to submit assignments that are their own original content, neatly typed, double spaced with proper margins, with correct grammar and spelling—using MLA standards.

Given the nature of performance at this moment of global pandemic, it is my strong suggestion that you gauge the amount of risk you are willing to accept in seeking out live performances—you may attend in-person or virtual performances. I will raise awareness of possible (but not mandatory) events throughout the semester.

The first paper must be submitted by the start of Spring Break—Monday, March 13. The second paper must be submitted on or by Thursday, May 11.

NOTE ON LATE WORK: I understand that sometimes students get behind/get overwhelmed—especially this year. If you miss a due date, you can (and should) still turn submit something. Late work turned in up to 7 days past due date is eligible for up to 50% credit. That said, if you start to fall behind in class, the best thing you can do is talk to me!

EXTRA CREDIT: Options for extra credit may be assigned throughout the semester.

CLASSROOM POLICIES

PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY: This class honors ISU's Principles of Community and expects the classroom discourse and attitude to reflect them: respect, purpose, cooperation, richness of diversity, freedom from discrimination, and the honest and respectful expression of ideas:
<http://www.diversity.iastate.edu/principles-of-community>

CONTENT: Some examples of the performing arts may contain strong language and mature content: profanity, violence, sexual terms, religious references, and other mature themes/elements which may be presented in this class. Art provides us an opportunity to explore the human condition, and the human condition is not always pretty. Expect to examine material that challenges you as an audience member—but at the same time, know that you as an audience member may excuse yourself if necessary. Warnings will be given as applicable, but you know your limits and triggers better than I do, so don't be afraid to be your own advocate.

REGARDING NAME, GENDER IDENTITY AND/OR GENDER EXPRESSION: Class rosters and any other university-controlled apparatuses (email, Canvas, etc.) are created, and provided to me, using the student's legal name. However, I will gladly honor any request to address you by an alternate name or pronouns. Please advise me of your preferences so that I may make appropriate changes to my records.

FLEXIBILITY: All dates and assignments are open to being changed at my discretion with plenty of notice to the students. I am hoping to make this class as useful as possible to you all, so I will be on the lookout for targeted ways to make the course better. Please be patient and flexible if we make changes.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: As a land-grant institution, we are committed to the caretaking of this land and would like to begin this event by acknowledging those who have previously taken care of the land on which we gather. Before this site became Iowa State University, it was the ancestral lands and territory of the Baxoje or Ioway Nation. The United States obtained the land from the Meskwaki and Sauk nations in the Treaty of 1842. We wish to recognize our obligations to this land and to the people who took care of it, as well as to the 17,000 Native people who live in Iowa today.

ACCESSIBILITY: Iowa State University is committed to assuring that all educational activities are free from discrimination and harassment based on disability status. Students requesting accommodations for a documented disability are required to meet with staff in Student Accessibility Services (SAS) to establish eligibility and learn about related processes. Eligible students will be provided with a Notification Letter for each course and reasonable accommodations will be arranged after timely delivery of the Notification Letter to the instructor. Students are encouraged to deliver Notification Letters as early in the semester as possible. SAS, a unit in the Dean of Students Office, is located in room 1076, Student Services Building or online at www.sas.dso.iastate.edu. Contact SAS by email at accessibility@iastate.edu or by phone at 515-294-7220 for additional information.

PUBLIC HEALTH: If you are not feeling well, you should stay home and focus on your health. Should you miss class due to illness, it is your responsibility to work to arrange for accommodations and to make up coursework, as consistent with the attendance policy.

You may choose to wear a face mask and/or receive the COVID-19 vaccine and boosters, as well as other vaccines such as influenza, but those options are not required. Thielen Student Health Center will continue to provide COVID-19 vaccinations free-of-charge to students. The university will continue to offer free masks and COVID-19 test kits during the fall 2022 semester. CHEATING AND PLAGIARIZING: Plagiarism is defined as copying or paraphrasing the ideas of others and passing them off as your own. Cheating and plagiarism are very serious issues. Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing in this class will automatically receive a "0" on the assignment and be turned into the Academic Dishonesty Committee. Please see the student handbook for more information. If you have any question about whether you are plagiarizing an assignment, please ask me about it before you turn it in. The class will follow Iowa State University's policy on academic dishonesty. Anyone suspected of academic dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Students Office: <http://www.dso.iastate.edu/ja/academic/misconduct.html>

WRITING AND MEDIA CENTER ASSISTANCE: The Writing and Media Center (WMC) helps students become effective, confident communicators by supporting students during all stages of the writing process, from brainstorming to revising, as well as with oral, visual, and electronic communication. FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION: Iowa State University supports and upholds the First Amendment protection of freedom of speech and the principle of academic freedom in order to foster a learning environment where open inquiry and the vigorous debate of a diversity of ideas are encouraged. Students will not be penalized for the content or viewpoints of their speech as long as student expression in a class context is germane to the subject matter of the class and conveyed in an appropriate manner.

RELIGIOUS ACCOMMODATION: If an academic or work requirement conflicts with your religious practices and/or observances, you may request reasonable accommodations. Your request must be in writing, and your instructor or supervisor will review the request. You or your instructor may also seek assistance from the Dean of Students Office or the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance.
