ITEMS TO BE GRADED

PARTICIPATION: We will be using the Top Hat (www.tophat.com) classroom response system in this class. You will be able to submit answers to in-class questions using Apple or Android smartphones and tablets, laptops, or through text message.

You can visit the Top Hat Overview (https://success.tophat.com/s/article/Student-Top-Hat-Overview-and-Getting-Started-Guide) within the Top Hat Success Center which outlines how you will register for a Top Hat account, as well as providing a brief overview to get you up and running on the system. Top Hat will require a paid subscription, and a full breakdown of all subscription options available can be found here: www.tophat.com/pricing.

An invitation will be sent to you by email, but if you don't receive this email, you can register by simply visiting our course website: https://app.tophat.com/e/864688 - our Course Join Code is: 864688

Note: I cannot assist with any technical issues that may arise while using Top Hat. Contacting me instead of the proper IT help desk (whether it be the ISU solution center or Top Hat help desk) will only add time to your issue and possibly cause you to fall behind on important due dates in this class. Always call Top Hat help desk or ISU IT solution center first to resolve technical issues.

Should you require assistance with Top Hat at any time, due to the fact that they require specific user information to troubleshoot these issues, please contact the Top Hat Support Team directly by way email at support@tophat.com or the in app support button or by calling 1-888-663-5491 (this is the fastest way to get your issue resolved I highly recommend calling directly).

A student may also contact the ISU IT Solution Center for any questions you have regarding Top Hat or Canvas. To contact the Solution Center: Complete an IT Solution Center online form for Top Hat questions or email at solution@iastate.edu or call (515) 294-4000 or visit 192 Parks Library.

ATTENDANCE: Each class period we will begin with attendance via Top Hat. The Top Hat attendance code will only be available for one minute at the beginning of class. These three daily attendance points are non-negotiable, there are too many students in this class for me to make any exceptions and change anyone attendance for any reason. If you miss a class is there is no chance to earn the points from that day. The only instances where a student can be excused for missing a class are the following—with proper documentation:

- Field Trips and Curricular related activities
- Extra-Curricular activities as a representative of the university
  - academic or professional conferences and workshops
  - intercollegiate athletic, academic, and judging competitions
  - musical, theatrical, dance and other artistic performances
  - presentations or programs given to external audiences
- Military Service
- Court Appearances
- Funerals (other family emergencies are NOT recognized as excused absences).
Any student who has an excused absence must provide the proper documentation to me prior to the date of the absence in order to excuse your absence. You must also make arrangements with me to make up any missed assignments within a reasonable amount of time.

READING TESTS: Every other week, students will complete a reading test in Canvas on material from the text. Each test may be repeated twice, and the lowest score will be dropped from your aggregate grade. Questions from any reading test may appear again on an exam.

EXAMS: All the examinations are composed of multiple-choice questions. The questions for the exams are approximately 20% material from the text and reading tests—and 80% from lectures. Any powerpoints, guest lectures, film clips, field trip information, and/or performances seen in class may also be included on exams. Exams 1 & 2 will only cover their respective chapters, but the final exam may be comprehensive.

REACTION PAPERS: You are asked to attend three performances (chosen from the categories below) and write a reaction paper of at least 800 words giving your view on the event, the performers, and the audience with your opinion supported by specifics. NOTE: Questions to be answered are on page 13 of the text and will be included in the assignment on Canvas. Performances should be at University level or higher—any exception requires instructor approval.

Reaction papers must be submitted through Canvas with proof of attendance (ticket, program, signed statement from someone in charge at the event, etc). Papers will be accepted up to two Theatre 106 class days after you have seen the performance. The first paper must be submitted by the day of the first exam (Wednesday, Feb. 20). The second paper must be submitted by the day of the second exam (Wednesday, Apr. 3). The third paper is due on Wednesday May, 1.

Since this is a college level course, students are expected to write at a college level. Students are expected to hand in assignments that are their own original content, neatly typed, double spaced with proper margins, with correct grammar and spelling—using MLA standards. Major points may be deducted for incorrect spelling and grammatical errors (including comma splices, run on sentences, sentence fragments, etc.).

EXTRA CREDIT: Students may attend one additional performance of their choice and complete another reaction paper—for up to 20 additional extra credit points. Extra credit assignments must be submitted through Canvas by Wednesday, May 1.

Students will also be given opportunities to volunteer in class for additional extra credit.

CLASSROOM POLICIES

PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY: This class honors ISU’s Principles of Community and expects the classroom discourse and attitude to reflect them: respect, purpose, cooperation, richness of diversity, freedom from discrimination, and the honest and respectful expression of ideas:
http://www.diversity.iastate.edu/principles-of-community

TECHNOLOGY: Students will use computers and smartphones to complete assignments in class. I expect you to use them wisely—and this policy can be revoked at any time. Any disruption from a device (texting, answering calls, surfing social media, completing work from other classes) will result in a deduction of 25 points from your attendance grade. A continued problem may result in your ejection from the class. That being said, if there are extraordinary circumstances and you are waiting for an important call, let me know beforehand and we can make arrangements. NOTE: Absolutely NO RECORDING OR PHOTOGRAPHY allowed in class without explicit permission—this includes but is not limited to lectures, guest speakers, taking pictures of PowerPoint presentations, and/or performances/presentations.

CONTENT: Some examples of the performing arts may contain strong language and mature content: profanity, violence, sexual terms, religious references, and other mature themes/elements which may be presented in this class. Art provides us an opportunity to explore the human condition, and the human condition is not always pretty. Expect to examine material that challenges you as an audience member—but at the same time, know that you as an audience member may excuse yourself if necessary. Warnings will be given as applicable, but you know your limits and triggers better than I do, so don’t be afraid to be your own advocate.

FLEXIBILITY: All dates and assignments are open to being changed at my discretion with plenty of notice to the students. I am hoping to make this class as useful to the students in the room as possible, so I will constantly be looking for ways to make the course as useful to you as possible. Please be patient and flexible if we make changes.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES
DEAD WEEK: This class follows the Iowa State University Dead Week guidelines as outlined in http://catalog.iastate.edu/academics/#examinationstext

CHEATING AND PLAGIARIZING: Plagiarism is defined as copying or paraphrasing the ideas of others and passing them off as your own. Cheating and plagiarism are very serious issues. Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing in this class will automatically receive a “0” on the assignment and be turned into the Academic Dishonesty Committee. Please see the student handbook for more information. If you have any question about whether you are plagiarizing an assignment, please ask me about it before you turn it in. The class will follow Iowa State University’s policy on academic dishonesty. Anyone suspected of academic dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Students Office: http://www.dso.iastate.edu/ia/academic/misconduct.html
