This class involves intellectual and experiential exploration of theatre movement theories and techniques. The plan of study for this course includes solo movement exercises, partnered movement exercises, and group exercises. The class will also include readings, videos, demonstrations, discussions, projects, performance critiques and analytical work.

WE WILL UTILIZE MODULES IN CANVAS - make sure you get used to checking Canvas for class updates/assignments!

CLASSROOM CONSIDERATIONS:

We will spend most class periods learning and practicing various movement, voice, and breathing techniques. As a result, we will be sharing a lot of the same air, so masks are HIGHLY encouraged. Additionally, it is imperative that you dress in clothes that will allow for full movement. (this means clothes and shoes that allow you to comfortably run, jump, kick, roll, etc) We will also work outdoors on occasion, so make sure to come ready for sun (bring sunscreen/a hat/etc) on those days.

FACE MASKS ENCOURAGED: Because of the continuing COVID-19 pandemic, all students are encouraged—but not required—to wear face masks, consistent with current recommendations from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Further information on the proper use of face masks is available at: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/your-health/effective-masks.html>.

VACCINATIONS ENCOURAGED: All students are encouraged to receive a vaccination against COVID-19. Multiple locations are available on campus for free, convenient vaccination. Further information is available at: <https://web.iastate.edu/safety/updates/covid19/vaccinations>. Vaccinations may also be obtained from health care providers and pharmacies.

PHYSICAL DISTANCING ENCOURAGED FOR UNVACCINATED INDIVIDUALS: Classrooms and other campus spaces are operating at normal capacities, and physical distancing by faculty, staff, students, and visitors to campus is not required. However, unvaccinated individuals are encouraged to continue to physically distance themselves from others when possible

FEEDBACK: Each student will be expected to not only receive, but also give constructive feedback. Emotionally and socially prepare yourself to enter into a space in which all constructive feedback has a place and is encouraged. Listening to/working with feedback is a fundamental part of our personal evolution, both as artists and as human beings. Don't be afraid to ask questions when feedback is confusing & remember that feedback in this class is always designed to help you progress through the material.

COLLEGIALITY:

It is VITAL that students display respect towards one another in this class. Creative work does not flourish in harsh, negative, or overly critical environments. In this class we will practice outstanding audience skills and hone the art of giving/receiving creative feedback. Students who do not give their attention to/respect their peers' work will lose points.

Students are responsible for living the tenets established in ISU's Principles of Community: Respect, Purpose, Cooperation, Richness of Diversity, Freedom from discrimination, and the Honest and respectful expression of ideas. Visit ISU's Principles of Community website (<http://www.diversity.iastate.edu/principles-of-community>)

GRADING

Acting is a creative skill, but also a technical one. This is a participation-based and individualized growth-oriented class. While performing is the goal of an actor, a class in acting can benefit other aspects of your life, both professionally and personally. Students will be graded on completing each assignment's required creative and technical elements as well as each student's growth and progress as a performer.

It is very important to remember that since this a performance based course, grading is often subjective. In a performance class, it can be tempting to compare yourself to your peers. In other classes, you don't watch your peers perform their homework, so you don't have this temptation. The work we do in theatre is done out loud, in-person, and in front of an audience. Remember then, that each person's prior experience (or lack thereof) will effect the work they bring to class, and that we enter this class at different places on our theatrical journey as a result. It is important to keep this in mind and resist the urge to evaluate your own progress based on that of your peers'. Additionally, do not seek perfection in regards to your performances—perfection is just a myth. Your progress/process is more important than a final, "perfect" product. (See "Do Over" Days below)

Remember: In Theatre, creative risk taking will always yield bigger rewards than "playing it safe". In this class, we will practice vulnerability and engage in A LOT of wacky/weird group work in order to create dynamic theatrical experiences! It will also be FUN! Bring your sense of adventure and get ready to step outside your comfort zones!

COURSE GRADING SCALE

A-to A= 90-100% Exceptional work: Always prepared; extensive outside-of-class preparation; self-motivated. Active, positive contributor to class. Punctual; always present. Demonstrates significant improvements in skill and knowledge during semester.

B-to B+ = 80-89% Good work: Always prepared; significant outside-of-class preparation, self-motivated. Punctual; always present. Positive contributor to class. Demonstrates notable improvement in skills and knowledge during semester.

C-to C+ = 70-79% Average work: Generally prepared; adequate outside-of-class preparation; often self-motivated. Often contributes to class. Punctual; almost always present. Demonstrates some improvement in skills and knowledge during semester.

D-to D+ = 60-69% Below average work: Often not prepared; shows little outside preparation; rarely self-motivated. Seldom contributes to class, and/or may have negative attitude. Sometimes late; some absences. Little skill and knowledge improvement demonstrated during semester.

F = 59% and below. Unacceptable work: Rarely prepared and lacks adequate outside-of-class preparation; not motivated. Does not contribute to class and/or may have negative attitude. Not punctual; several absences. Virtually no demonstrated growth in skills and knowledge.

(+ and -grades will be assigned on the following scale: percentages ending in a 0-2 will result in a -; percentages ending in 7-9 will result in a +. Example: 70-72%=C-, 73-76%=C, 77-79=C+)

ATTENDANCE/PARTICIPATION POINTS

This is a performance-based class and attendance is mandatory*. Theatre is a collaborative art. To learn to perform, you must be here and participate. The participation and enthusiasm of each member in this class contributes to the success of the whole. Show up (on time), engage with class discussions, invite one another into the conversation, and be present for one another!

PARTICIPATION POINTS WILL BE AWARDED USING THE FOLLOWING SCALE:

Exceptional (100pts) - Student has ZERO absences and is an active, positive contributor to class.

Above Average (90pts) - Student has accumulated no more than three absences, is always prepared and a positive contributor to class.

Good (80pts) - Student has accumulated no more than four absences, is always prepared and a positive contributor to class.

Average (70pts) - Student has accumulated no more than five absences, is always prepared and a positive contributor to class.

Below Average (60pts) - Student has accumulated no more than six absences, is always prepared and a positive contributor to class.

*Excused Absences do NOT count against your Participation grade - these include school sanctioned absences, absences due to medically documented illness, or family emergencies. Remember that you have up to three absences before this grade dips below an "A". Please do NOT come to class if you are contagious with anything!

Extenuating Circumstances: Students experiencing family crisis or prolonged medical absences may be offered an additional assignment to help make up a deficit of participation points on a case by case basis and at the discretion of the professor.

ASSIGNMENTS

Assignments are due in class on the day assigned. Work due on the date of campus-sanctioned activity absences must be turned in prior to the absence date. Students are responsible for making up all work missed because of absences.

Each assignment will be covered in class with detailed guidelines given for each. It is the student's responsibility to make sure they are completing each assignment as outlined in order to earn full points. Assignments will be discussed in class AND posted in Canvas. Please make sure you have this course bookmarked in Canvas, with course notifications turned ON

PERFORMANCE ASSIGNMENTS are graded using the following scale:

Above Average work - Student meets all assignment objectives with aplomb, or only a few minor missteps.

Average Work - Student is mostly meeting assignment objectives, There is clear effort and intentionality in their work, even if the performance is "unpolished."

Not Yet There - Student has shown up for their performance, but is missing key objectives and/or under-prepared. Student has room for improvement and is encouraged to continue working on the assignment in order to take advantage of “Do-Over” days for the opportunity to earn a higher grade.

“DO-OVER” DAYS - This semester I will offer two “Do-Over” days for students wishing to pursue improved marks on their performance assignments. This pertains ONLY to performance assignments and is not applicable to written work.

LATE WORK POLICY

I understand that even in the best of times, students get overwhelmed and can fall behind. This semester will undoubtedly include challenges for many of us. If you encounter challenges (health related or otherwise) please message me so that I can do my best to help you stay on track. In general:

- Late work turned in up to 7 days past due date is eligible for 50% credit
- This policy ONLY applies to written assignments.
- This policy DOES NOT apply to in-class performances. If you are not in attendance on your scheduled performance day, you will receive a 0 on that assignment. Exceptions will only be made under extenuating circumstances (If you are sick/contagious or in case of medical/family emergency)

If you start to fall behind in this class, the best thing you can do is talk to me! I want everyone in this class to be successful - but I can only help if you let me know when you're having trouble.

KEEP IN MIND: Late work is only eligible for up to 50% credit. That means that if you do an outstanding job on the assignment, but it is late*, you can still only earn 50%. If you do a poor job on the assignment and turn it in late, you will most likely earn less than 50%. If you take advantage of this policy on too many assignments, it WILL negatively impact your grade and you may not pass the course.

Don't Panic - Assignments coming in an hour or two past the due date/time will NOT be penalized. IF you have an EXCUSED absence for a performance day, it is your responsibility to communicate with the professor & your scene partner(s) a time to make up the performance before we move to the next assignment.*

FLEXIBILITY: As theatre artists, learning to be flexible—both physically and in life— is an asset. During this time of global uncertainty, it is important that we remember this and lean into it when necessary. Although the course syllabus has been carefully laid out, it is entirely plausible that we will need to be adaptive/responsive to circumstances outside our control. Changes will be clearly communicated. Let us foster a culture of grace and understanding in this class, so that we may overcome any challenges together.

Things to Remember About Coursework

- You will engage in partner/group projects in this class - be prepared to schedule outside (digital) rehearsal time*
- Please turn everything in via Canvas. I will not accept emailed assignments unless there is a technical error and you absolutely cannot upload your assignment to Canvas. If this happens, it is your responsibility to email the assignment to me before the posted deadline along with an explanation of why you are emailing the assignment to me in the body of the email.
This policy exists to best serve you, as emails can/do get lost and overlooked. Canvas is the most secure way to ensure assignments are documented/receive full credit.
- Performance days are scheduled ahead of time and are non-negotiable. If you are called to perform and are not prepared or present, it will result in a 0 or an "F" for the assignment.
 - NOTE: This class requires you to schedule some rehearsals outside of class!
- You must attend and respond to at least two productions this semester (Guidelines will be provided) All ISU Theatre productions are eligible, but so are outside digital productions if you are uncomfortable attending in-person performance. More details will be provided as production dates/times are announced. Dance productions ARE eligible for this assignment as well!

★ ONE-ACT PLAY FESTIVAL

★ BABA

★ ISU INSECT PAGEANT

*If you are involved in a production, you will write about your experience from within the project for this assignment!

You can attend and write a response to all three productions for 50 pts extra credit!

GENERAL ETIQUETTE REQUIREMENTS:

- ABSOLUTELY NO CELL PHONES or TEXTING during class.
- A creative environment is one in which all artists feel safe to fail – recordings of any kind (audio, visual, live-stream, etc.) are strictly prohibited and any student found to be in violation of this rule will be dropped one letter grade for the first offense, and dismissed from the class for the second. The only exception to this is on performance days IF (AND ONLY IF) an actor asks to have their performance recorded.
- Theatre is a collaborative art, and this class is no exception. We will be working collaboratively every day and you should think of your peers as fellow members of this artistic community. We will engage in class discussions, exercises, improvisation, and other theatre games/activities – which will help you build self-confidence as you find new ways to express yourself.
- No eating during class
- Plays written for theatre often contain strong language and mature content: profanities, violence, sexual terms, religious references and other mature themes/elements may be presented in this class. Theater provides us an opportunity to explore the human condition, and the human condition is not always pretty. Expect to examine material that challenges you as both an actor and as an audience member It is a violation of copyright law to alter/change/omit dialogue from a play. Keep this in mind when you select material, as you will NOT be permitted to change the text in any way. If you have any problems/questions about this please see me.
- When attending theatre performances (both for those taking place in-person and online) make sure to arrive on time, and be attentive & respectful.
