"The word theatre comes from the Greeks. It means the seeing place. It is the place people come to see the truth about life and the social situation. The theatre is a spiritual and social X-ray of its time. The theatre was created to tell people the truth about life and the social situation." - Stella Adler

Complete at least one of the following assignments, (may complete more):

- Dear Diary
- Critic Swap
- Blowing Up the Canon
- Practitioner Time Travel
- Production Dramaturgy

All Project Descriptions and Guidelines in Canvas

Attendance and Assignments:

Course goals and methods necessitate class attendance. Students are allowed three unexcused absences in the course. Each subsequent unexcused absence will lower the “Attendance” grade by 15%. It is possible to achieve negative points in this category.

Note: Arriving late to class by more than five minutes is considered an unexcused absence.

Excused absences (illness, university sanctioned events, family emergency) require advance notification and written documentation to qualify as excused absences. Notes from parents will not satisfy this requirement.

Assignments are due as assigned in the syllabus. Hard copies are required unless otherwise stated. Late assignments will drop one letter grade for each day they are late, so plan ahead. Save your work, have ink in your printer, keep your dog from eating your thumb drive, etc.

Assignments due on the date of campus-sanctioned activity absences must be turned in prior to the absence date. The student is responsible for making up all work missed because of absences.

Grading Scale:

A- to A= 90-100% Exceptional work: Always prepared; extensive outside-of-class preparation; self-motivated. Active, positive contributor to class. Punctual; always present. Demonstrates significant improvements in skill and knowledge during semester.

B- to B+ = 80-89% Good work: Always prepared; significant outside-of-class preparation, self-motivated. Punctual; always present. Positive contributor to class. Demonstrates notable improvement in skills and knowledge during semester.

C- to C+ = 70-79% Average work: Generally prepared; adequate outside-of-class preparation; often self-motivated. Often contributes to class. Punctual; almost always present. Shows improvement in skills and knowledge during semester.

D- to D+ = 60-69% Below average work: Often not prepared; shows little outside preparation; rarely self-motivated. Seldom contributes to class, and/or may demonstrate negative attitude. Sometimes late; some absences. Little skill and knowledge improvement demonstrated during semester.

F = 59% and below. Unacceptable work: Rarely prepared and lacks adequate outside-of-class preparation; not motivated. Does not contribute to class and/or may demonstrate negative attitude. Not punctual; several absences. Virtually no demonstrated growth in skills and knowledge.

(+ and - grades will be assigned on the following scale: percentages ending in a 0-1 will result in a -; percentages ending in 8-9 will result in a +. Example: 70-71%=C-, 72-77%=C, 78-79=C+)

Final grades will be submitted to the registrar by 10am on the Monday after final exams. After this date and time, a grade will only be changed if there has been a mistake on the instructor’s part.
Please note:
The theatre explores the full range of human experience and perspectives. Some of the assigned plays, performances, and class discussions in this course will cover sensitive material that may be offensive to some people. Critical analysis and discussion of class material is a vital part of achieving the course objectives, and students will be encouraged to share their opinions and perspectives on material covered throughout the semester.

University Policy Statements:
The instructor of this course abides by University policies and regulations concerning attendance, academic honesty (including plagiarism), and all others as stated in the current Undergraduate Academic Catalog.

Academic Dishonesty: All work should be your own. Cheating, plagiarism (copying or paraphrasing the ideas of others and passing them off as your own), and other forms of academic dishonesty are very serious issues. Penalties for academic dishonesty may range from failure of the assignment to dismissal from the university. Anyone suspected of academic dishonesty will be reported to the Dean of Students Office. http://www.dso.iastate.edu/ja/academic/misconduct.html

To avoid plagiarism, document the source when using words or ideas from another person’s work, (including printed, spoken, and electronic sources).

To document direct quotations in APA or MLA style, writers must:
- include quotation marks around the material or indent it within the text to indicate their use of the source;
- provide appropriate parenthetical notation;
- include the name of the author (if available) or the title (if no author is given) either in the introduction to the quotation or within the parenthetical citation.

To document a direct quotation in an oral presentation, speakers must:
- say the word “quote” to verbally replace written quotation marks; and
- include the name of the author (if available) or the title (if no author is given) either immediately before or after the quotation.
- outline oral presentations consistent with the above rules for written material.

If you paraphrase facts and/or ideas of others, by fully considering the ideas, then stating them in your own words and sentence structure; you must still credit the sources.

Disability Accommodations: Iowa State University complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Sect 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. If you have a disability and anticipate needing accommodations in this course, please contact (instructor name) to set up a meeting within the first two weeks of the semester or as soon as you become aware of your need. Before meeting with (instructor name), you will need to obtain a SAAR form with recommendations for accommodations from the Disability Resources Office, located in Room 1076 on the main floor of the Student Services Building. Their telephone number is 515-294-7220 or email disabilityresources@iastate.edu. Retroactive requests for accommodations will not be honored.

Dead Week: This class follows the Iowa State University Dead Week guidelines as outlined in http://catalog.iastate.edu/academiclife/#deadweek

Harassment and Discrimination: Harassment and Discrimination
Iowa State University strives to maintain our campus as a place of work and study for faculty, staff, and students that is free of all forms of prohibited discrimination and harassment based upon race, ethnicity, sex (including sexual assault), pregnancy, color, religion, national origin, physical or mental disability, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, or status as a U.S. veteran. Any student who has concerns about such behavior should contact his/her instructor, Student Assistance at 515-294-1020 or email dso-sas@iastate.edu, or the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance at 515-294-7612.

Religious Accommodation: If an academic or work requirement conflicts with your religious practices and/or observances, you may request reasonable accommodations. Your request must be in writing, and your instructor or supervisor will review the request. You or your instructor may also seek assistance from the Dean of Students Office or the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance.

Contact Information: If you are experiencing, or have experienced, a problem with any of the above issues, email academicissues@iastate.edu
