ABOUT THE ORGANIST

Dr. James Kibbie maintains a full schedule of concert, recording, and festival engagements throughout North America and Europe, including appearances at the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris, Royal Festival Hall in London, Dvořak Hall in Prague, and Lincoln Center in New York. During his month-long concert tour of the Soviet Union in 1991, the newspaper Pravda hailed him as “a marvelous organist, a brilliant interpreter.” A frequent jury member of international organ competitions, he has himself been awarded the Grand Prix d’ Interprétation at the prestigious International Organ Competition of Chartres, France, and is also the only American to have won the International Organ Competition of the Prague Spring Festival in the former Czechoslovakia.

James Kibbie's performances have been broadcast on radio and television in the USA, Canada and Europe. His extensive discography includes “Merrily on Hill,” performed on the famed Skinner organ in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, works of Dieterich Buxtehude recorded on the historic 1687 Schnitger organ of Norden, Germany, and discs of music by Bach, Franck, Alain, Tournemire, Sowande, Buck, Morrison, and contemporary Czech composers. Dr. Kibbie's “audio holiday cards,” recorded on the Létourneau organ in his residence and issued as free internet downloads, are a popular annual tradition.

James Kibbie is internationally renowned as an authority on the organ music of Johann Sebastian Bach. He has performed the complete cycle of Bach organ works in a series of eighteen recitals and is in constant demand as a Bach recitalist and clinician. His recordings of the complete Bach works on historic baroque organs in Germany have been welcomed with enthusiastic critical and audience acclaim. Thanks to generous support from Dr. Barbara Furin Sloat in honor of J. Barry Sloat, the University of Michigan is offering Dr. Kibbie's recordings of all 274 Bach works as free internet downloads at www.blockmrecords.org/bach. James Kibbie is Professor Emeritus at the University of Michigan, where his 42-year tenure included service as University Organist and Chair of the Organ Department. His former students hold key positions in college teaching and church music nationally. Among the honors he has received, he is particularly proud of the James Kibbie Scholarship, endowed in perpetuity by the University of Michigan to support students majoring in organ performance and sacred music.

THANK YOU

To the Sukup family of Sheffield, Iowa, for supporting the Iowa State University organ and harpsichord program, renovating the Brombaugh organ, and helping Dr. Miriam Zach encourage growth of the next generation of organists-harpsichordists-scholars; ISU Department of Music and Theatre Brad Dell, Chair; Lawrence Curry, Facility/Technical Director; Chad Jacobsen, recording wizard; Becki Burrell, office administrator; Jarod A. Hart, registrant; and many unnamed people for their support and encouragement. Today’s international repertoire is brought to life with the mechanical-action organ, Opus 26 (1987) (50 ranks, 2,326 pipes, 4 divisions, 3 manuals, 34 stops) built by John Brombaugh (b.1937) who was inspired by the north-German Baroque organ builder Arp Schnitger (1648-1719). You are invited to upcoming concerts:

Thursday, October 26 - 7:30pm MET - Octubaween concert - combined ISU studios of Christian Carichner, low brass, and Miriam Zach, organ

Saturday, October 28 - 1:30pm MET - ISU Organ Studio Concert - Eastern European repertoire
